Title: “Reset App State” on products page clears cart badge but does not reset product buttons to “Add to Cart”

Description: When using the “Reset App State” option from the menu, the cart icon badge is cleared successfully. However, the product buttons that were previously clicked remain in the “Remove” state instead of resetting back to “Add to Cart”. This causes inconsistency in the application state.

Steps:

1. Login to Swag Labs with valid credentials.
2. On the Products Page, click “Add to Cart” on one or more products.
3. Open the menu (top left) and select “Reset App State”.
4. Observe the cart icon and product buttons.

Expected Result:

1. The cart icon badge should be cleared.
2. All product buttons should reset to the default “Add to Cart” state.

Actual Result:

1. The cart icon badge is cleared.
2. Product buttons remain in the “Remove” state instead of resetting to “Add to Cart”.

Bug_001:

Title: Large image size affects page load performance

Description: The page contains product images with large file sizes (393 KB). According to YellowLabTools, image size should be optimized to 20 KB or less to achieve a full performance score (100/100). Unoptimized images increase page weight, which slows down page load time, negatively impacts user experience, and can also affect SEO ranking. Image optimization is generally one of the easiest performance improvements and can be achieved by using specialized tools such as Kraken.io, ImageOptim, or SVGOMG.

Steps:

1. Open the website.
2. Navigate to the Products page.
3. Run an analysis using YellowLabTools.
4. Review the “Image optimization” section in the report.

Expected Result:

1. Images should be optimized and compressed to 20 KB or less without noticeable loss in quality.
2. Page load performance should improve, achieving a higher performance score (100/100).

Actual Result:

1. Product images are not optimized and weigh 393 KB.
2. Page load time is negatively affected.

Environment: Chrome

Severity: Medium

Priority: High

Screenshot:

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the results of a website audit from yellowlab.tools. The main header features tabs for "Test scenario review", "Swag Labs", "ايساب (۱)", "Yellow Lab Tools - P...", "Google تحقیق - همچنین", "Swag Labs", and a "+" button. Below the tabs are buttons for "New test", "Test again", and "Dashboard".

Global score: A large green button displays a grade A, with the score 88/100 below it. To the right is a small image of a laptop displaying the audit results.

Score details: A table titled "Page weight" provides a breakdown of the page's file size components:

C	Total weight	2.57 MB
	Image optimization	393 KB ▲
	Oversized images	0
	Gzip/Brotli compression	7.6 KB
	File minification	598 bytes

The bottom of the screen shows the Windows taskbar with various pinned icons and the date/time: 9/25/2025 4:53 PM.

Bug_002:

Title: "Terms of Service | Privacy Policy" link in the footer on Products Page is not clickable.

Description: On the Products Page, the footer contains the text "Terms of Service | Privacy Policy". These should be clickable links redirecting to their respective pages. However, they are displayed as plain text and do not respond to clicks.

Steps:

- 1.Login to Swag Labs with valid credentials.
- 2.Verify you are redirected to the Products Page.
- 3.Scroll down to the footer section.
- 4.Try to click on "Terms of Service" or "Privacy Policy".

Expected Result:

The Terms of Service | Privacy Policy opens correctly in a new tab

Actual Result:

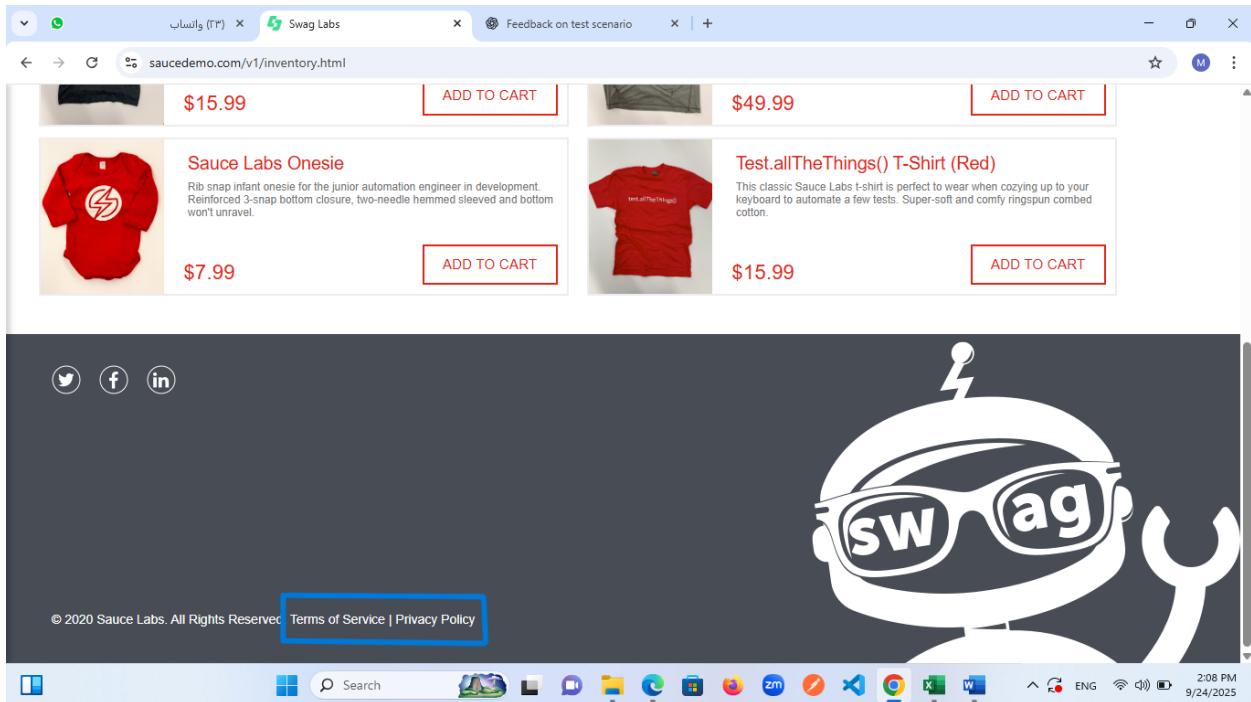

The texts "Terms of Service | Privacy Policy" are displayed in the footer but are not clickable links

Title: “Reset App State” on products page clears cart badge but does not reset product buttons to “Add to Cart”

Description: When using the “Reset App State” option from the menu, the cart icon badge is cleared successfully. However, the product buttons that were previously clicked remain in the “Remove” state instead of resetting back to “Add to Cart”. This causes inconsistency in the application state.

Steps:

1. Login to Swag Labs with valid credentials.
2. On the Products Page, click “Add to Cart” on one or more products.
3. Open the menu (top left) and select “Reset App State”.
4. Observe the cart icon and product buttons.

Expected Result:

1. The cart icon badge should be cleared.
2. All product buttons should reset to the default “Add to Cart” state.

Actual Result:

1. The cart icon badge is cleared.
2. Product buttons remain in the “Remove” state instead of resetting to “Add to Cart”.

Bug_009:

Title: Sorting dropdown overlaps with page title “Products” on mobile browser

Description: On mobile (Chrome browser), the sorting dropdown partially hides the last letter “s” of the page title Products, causing a UI readability issue.

Steps:

1. Open the Swag Labs website on mobile browser.
2. Login with valid credentials.
3. Observe the Products Page header.

Expected Result:

1. The page title Products should be fully visible without overlap.
2. The sorting dropdown should be aligned properly.

Actual Result:

The dropdown overlaps the title, partially hiding the letter “s” in Products.

Title: Back button overlaps with product image on Product Details Page (Mobile Browser)

Description: On the Product Details Page, when accessing from a mobile browser, the Back button is displayed on top of the product image instead of being positioned separately. This causes a poor UI experience and makes the page look cluttered.

Steps:

1. Open the Swag Labs website on mobile browser.
2. Login successfully.
3. Click any product to open the Product Details Page.
4. Observe the Back button position.

Expected Result:

1. The Back button should be placed above or beside the product image in a clear, separate position.
2. It should not overlap or cover any part of the product image.

Actual Result:

The Back button overlaps with the product image, partially covering it.
